SEPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. I CLEVELAND, July 16 .- There is a very hopeful feeling among the mass of Democrats in the State over the nominations made at the onvention of yesterday.

True, Gov. Campbell's renomination was ed by the Cincinnati and Hamilton county delegates, who also voted in the negave when the motion to make the nomination nantmous was put. True, too, these same Campbell will be carried to the polls.

But there is a long time between this and election day. Personal feeling and the sort partisanship that it inspires will have plenty of time to cool. It is believed very onfidently by men on the inside that united party will rally about Gov. Campbell and help him to show McKinley what a real

It is very gratifying to the thinking citizens all parties that the two chief opponents in he campaign are men of unquestioned per-National policies. There is a general sentiment that it would be too bad to have selfish minor interests hinder the forming of the splendid lines of battle which are possible with the great National questions upon which the Democratic and Republican platform makers have so trankly taken issue. And this sentiment, it is believed, will have much to do with quietles the transminitions elements which manifested themselves at yesterday's Convention. That Convention itself will go on record as one of the most remarkable ever held in the State. It was enthusiastic both in its agreements and in its discords.
